Instructor

Systematic Theology (1)

6:15 p.m. Bishop F. Josephus Johnson II

The Tri-Unity of God. This session will focus on describing the Godhead and by the illumination of the Holy Spirit gain knowledge of God's self-revelation of His character. We will also explore the main doctrines of the Bible and gain a knowledge of the position which the Bible claims for itself.

2 Samuel & 1 Chronicles

6:15 p.m. Min. Chuck Gills

The study of the books of 2 Samuel and 1 Chronicles will center on restoration. Repeatedly, David learns the hard way that sin has consequences. It affects his relationship with the people of Israel, with the members of his family, and with God. But the main message of these books is not human failure, but divine faithfulness. As we follow David's life in this book, you will discover that what was true for David is true for you, too. No matter what has happened between you and God in the past, restoration is possible.

1 John

7:15 p.m. Rev. Dr. Gregory Clark

This class will focus on how to be the person God wants you to be. Because how you live means more than what you say, and hypocrisy and hide-and-seek games with worldliness hurt you and those around you, because many feelings that people "fall into" - sentimentality, emotionalism, and lust - aren't love, and because real faith must be based on time-tested truth. Discussions will be centered on turning from hypocrisy to Truth.

Johnson Leadership Institute

7:15 p.m. Bishop F. Josephus Johnson II

The Johnson Leadership Institute (formerly Pastoral Mentoring) focuses on providing training and tools for Pastors and Ministry Leaders. This semester students will receive in-depth teaching from the book Theological Interpretation of Scripture (A Companion), by Stephen E. Fowl. Christians have been interpreting Scripture with an aim of deepening their life with God and each other from the very beginning of the church, the past twenty years or so have witnessed an explosion of scholarly writing devoted to the theological interpretation of Scripture. Our discussions will focus on the differences between theological interpretation and the scholarly approach to interpreting the Bible. We will learn about the tremendous battle and the importance of theological interpretation.
